Dear Mr. Ryan:

RE: Docket No. 1999-0342
Methods And Apparatus For Use In Communicating Voice And High Speed
Data In A Wireless Communication System

Enclosed is a copy of the above-identified patent application that was filed in the U.S. Patent Office on June 14, 2000. Also enclosed are the formal documents you must sign in order to complete the patent filing requirements.

After reviewing the application, please read both the Declaration and Power of Attorney and the Assignment and Agreement, then sign and date them—in blue ink as your name is typed—on the same date at the appropriate place on each document in the presence of a Notary Public. Note that your signature on the Assignment is the only one that must be notarized. (AT&T will reimburse you for any notarization costs you incur; please include a statement of such costs.) Please return the signed documents to me as soon as possible, using the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Also enclosed are Assignment forms for the Mexican and Argentine patent applications for this invention. Please sign and date the forms as indicated and return them to me with the U.S. forms. No notarization is required for these Mexican and Argentine forms.

Please be advised that we share a legal obligation to advise the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office of the existence of any and all relevant prior art documents, including journal articles, patents, conference proceedings, and any other published items, as well as any past commercial activity that a Patent Examiner would consider material to examining your patent application for purposes of novelty and non-obviousness. If you are aware of any such materials that may have a bearing on your patent application, please inform Thomas M. Isaacson (301-812-1047) immediately.

The copy of the application is yours to keep for your files. Please remember that this is proprietary to AT&T and should be treated in accordance with company policy.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
